FORESIGHT STRATEGIES SHOW PREPARES ENTREPRENEURS WITH FORESIGHT AWARENESS

"Foresight awareness is like having an eagles panoramic view of your opportunities"

NEW HAMPTON, NY - March 2018 – How do entrepreneurs design and prepare a preferred future for their business? Well, preparing your business for the future is essential because rapid changes are affecting today's business. Dr. Nilda Perez host and Rachel Calderon co-host of Foresight Strategies Show (FSS) are dedicated to presenting foresight to entrepreneurs and small business owners.

In most cases foresight awareness is fundamental because if you do not watch trends most likely you are not seizing opportunities that are readily available. The FSS helps entrepreneurs and small business owners discover how they can stand far apart from their competition through awareness of trends, scenarios, and designing your desired future.

The Foresight Strategies Show promotes thought leaders from diverse industries whom showcase how they have implemented foresight into their perspective industry. The show is interactive so that the audience can ask questions, make suggestions, support the topic through their communication and guests respond to questions bringing synergy to the topics presented.

"Foresight awareness is a vow to trust the process that will expose your mindset to an distinctively uncommon way to view your industry, your environment, the world."
